

Update from TaxBanter

Breaking News

TaxBanter and Webb Martin Consulting acquire TaxEd to continue its proud history of supporting the Government and NFP sector.

TaxBanter and Webb Martin Consulting are excited to announce the recent joint acquisition of TaxEd, a tax focussed professional development and support service for the Government and Not-for-Profit (NFP) sector.

In operation since 2003, TaxEd has become widely recognised as a trusted provider of services to the Government and NFP sector by offering a unique, annual membership based service that provides members with access to:

- a monthly sector specific industry issues/professional development update service;
- a choice in areas of interest (GST, FBT, Salary packaging, Payroll and Eligibility);
- Tax Assist Q&A, a Q&A service from the TaxEd technical panel;
- a specialised, searchable database of sector specific tax issues and Q&As,
- up to 10 staff members that can utilise membership benefits; and
- additional discounted sector specific training.

The TaxEd business will continue to operate as a stand-alone business but will now benefit from access to the specialist tax writing, training and consulting expertise of the combined TaxBanter and Webb Martin Consulting resources.

For TaxBanter and Webb Martin clients, we are excited about the benefits the TaxEd service may offer your clients and/or broader business network. Please forward this information to any Government and NFP organisations/contacts you feel may benefit from the TaxEd service offering
