Maintaining up-to-date and practical training is key to keeping your firm relevant and your staff engaged. TaxBanter understands that not everyone is the same, so we allow you to choose the topics, times, dates, and locations to suit your specific needs.

What are the benefits?

- We come to you – You won't lose time travelling to and from training sessions.
- Tax experts – We are experts in tax training as this is our core focus.
- High quality training materials – Our dedicated team of technical writers produces practical papers that are invaluable for future reference.
- Extensive team of trainers – Our combined pool of trainers has extensive experience in delivering tax training and offers exceptional levels of variety and specialisation in all areas of tax law.
- Flexible and relevant topic choice – We have a range of Special Topics available so you can select training subjects that are relevant for your staff.
- Team setting – Your staff members train together, sharing knowledge and engaging in discussion in a friendly setting.

- Client-specific relevance – Client queries can be discussed confidentially in the training session and examples can be provided around real-life scenarios that are relevant for your staff.
- Staff retention – Your staff stays engaged through your commitment to quality training.
- Materials in advance – Our training materials are delivered electronically prior to your session.

The Program

This is entirely up to you and your needs. Training sessions can be scheduled monthly, bi-monthly, quarterly, or upon request and are usually conducted over a two or three hour period.

Sessions can be made up of:

- A Tax Update
- A Special Topic or multiple Special Topics (chosen from our extensive list); and/or
- Topics from our specialist training programs such as Tax Fundamentals or Superannuation

Highly qualified trainers

TaxBanter's strength is a direct result of the quality of our staff. All of our trainers have extensive experience delivering tax training, as well as strong backgrounds in professional practice.

Training locations

We provide training to firms in major cities and regional centres throughout Australia. We also have the technology to provide interactive online training – wherever you're located, we can service your training needs.

Tax Library access

As an in-house client, you will also have access to all materials presented in your session via the TaxBanter Tax Library, our online searchable database of Tax Update and Special Topic content.

The Tax Library allows clients to reduce their research time by easily accessing content and issues discussed in their sessions.
